Milwaukee Youth Symphony Orchestra

Milwaukee Youth Symphony Orchestra (MYSO) nurtures, challenges, and inspires young minds through music, profoundly changing lives and our community for the better.

Our programs:

- transform students through mastery of essential life skills including critical thinking, teamwork, focus, discipline, leadership, and collaboration.
- serve more than 7,000 students annually.
- range from symphony and string orchestras to jazz and steel pan bands.
- are recognized nationally and internationally for educational and artistic excellence.

MYSO programming has been recognized as a National Arts and Humanities Youth Program Award winner, the highest honor of its kind for after-school youth arts education in the nation. MYSO is the only youth orchestra in the country to have received this honor.
